PART III

Judicial Department

THE HIGH COURT OF KERALA

NOTIFICATION

No. D1 (A)-56238/2004. 3rd June 2008.

In exercise of the powers conferred by Article 225 of the Constitution of India, Section 122 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908) and all other provisions enabling it in this behalf, the High Court of Kerala after previous publication in the Kerala Gazette No. 25 dated 19th June 2007 as Notification No. D1 (A)-56238/2004 dated the 23rd April 2007 and with the previous approval of the Government of Kerala conveyed in G.O. (Rt.) No. 1678/2008/Home dated 27-5-2008, hereby makes the following further amendments to the Rules of the High Court of Kerala, 1971 namely :—

AMENDMENT

In the said Rules, in rule 148, the following provisos shall be added namely:—

“Provided that in cases where the State Government is a party, the Secretary to the Government Department concerned shall be arrayed as party representing the Government.

Provided further that if the subject matter of the petition relates to two or more Government Departments or, if the petition is of such a nature, the disposal of which warrants information from two or more Government Departments, the Chief Secretary to Government and the Secretaries to those Government Departments shall be made as party representing the Government”.

By order of the Governor,

A. V. RAMAKRISHNA PILLAI,
Registrar (Subordinate Judiciary).

Explanatory Note

(This does not form part of the notification, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

At present, in all proceedings before the High Court under Article 226 and 227 of the Constitution of India, the State Government is represented by the Chief Secretary. The Government therefore requested the High Court to consider the feasibility of impleading the Secretaries to the Government Department concerned in such cases in place of the Chief Secretary.

The High Court after considering the matter in all its details has decided to amend the Rules of the High Court of Kerala to provide for the arraying of Secretaries to the Government of the Department concerned, in the proceeding under Article 226 and 227 of the Constitution of India, as the party representing the Government.

This notification is intended to achieve the above object.
